With their remarkable three part vocal harmony, a variety of acoustic instruments and a sense of musical whimsy. the music of Celtic Mayhem has delighted audiences all over the world.

These multi-talented musicians have the uncanny ability to play just about any instrument you put in front of them. Their skill and their wit will take you to a new level of music appreciation.

Combining the talents of members of three of the renaissance faire circuit's most popular musical acts, Celtic Mayhem performs Celtic traditional music and actual renaissance folk songs in several languages, along with original and contemporary music with a traditional feel. In addition to renaissance, medieval, pirate and Celtic festivals, they play select pubs, clubs and concerts, adding a crowd-pleasing Mayhem twist to every performance.

Featuring Ty Billings on vocals, guitar, and flute, Martyn Wyld on vocals, bass, guitar, mandolin and bouzouki and Jack Stamates on vocals, fiddle, recorder, and percussion, Celtic Mayhem have been entertaining audiences with their unique brand of "rockin' Irish music" since 2007.

Celtic Mayhem have four albums available at CD Baby, amazon.com and iTunes and are currently booking shows for Summer 2018 and beyond.
